CAREER FAIR
 CANDIDATE FAQs

Who should attend the Delaware Bio Science & Technology Career Fair as a job seeker?

- Individuals interested in pursuing employment in the regional science and technology industry, with educational background ranging from high school degree to Ph.D. credential, are encouraged to attend.
- Hiring employers are looking to fill part-time and full-time positions, as well as internships.

What is required of me as a job seeker interested in Science & Technology Career Fair?

- Register by Wednesday, February 28.
- Please send your resume in a Word or PDF document to ruby.harrington@delawarebio.org with the subject line, "2018 Delaware Bio Career Fair Resume" by Wednesday, February 28.
*Note that only one resume per individual may be submitted (and we will not accept resumes updated after original submission).
- After registering online, attend the Career Fair at the Executive Banquet & Conference Center on Tuesday, March 6, any time from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. Practice your 30 second elevator pitch prior to arrival.

Will you share the employers' contact information?

- In accordance with our privacy policy, Delaware Bio does not provide contact info of any of the employers. We encourage job seekers to request this information from the employer(s) at the career fair, if they are interested in following up after the event.

Is my resume shared with employers?

- Yes, all job seekers' resumes will be provided to all employers shortly after the event.
- If you would like us to exclude your resume from the electronic versions provided to the employers, please indicate that in the e-mail being sent to Ruby Harrington when you submit your resume.

What are important day-of-event reminders?

- Bring several hard copies of your resume.
- Delaware Bio requests a copy of your resume at the entrance of the event, even if the resume was submitted electronically, to keep track of attendance and to ensure we have a copy of your resume on file to share with employers. If you do not wish to submit your resume at the door, you will be asked to provide a business card or sign in.
- Please dress in business professional attire.

Which companies will be in attendance, and what jobs are available?

- As the career fair approaches, we encourage you to check for updates on the participating employers and job openings at the following link: <http://delawarebio.org/events/career-fair/>
- At the event, you will be given a booklet that provides a final listing of all employers and the positions they seek to fill.
